MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The Illinois Association of Drug Court Professionals is a state-wide organization formed to promote the drug court philosophy, to assist in the development of new drug courts and the maintenance of existing drug courts, and to provide assistance, education and training to professionals involved in the drug court movement. The Association is open to any professional interested in drug court and is currently comprised of judges, court administrators, prosecutors, defense attorneys, probation officers, drug/alcohol treatment professionals, law enforcement personnel, correctional officers, law makers, and educators. IADCP provides a forum through which its members may network and work together in developing viable treatment options for defendants within the criminal justice system.

- I wish to become a member of the Illinois Association of Drug Court Professionals and my $30 is included with my completed application.
